

I would be grateful if you would give more thought to the "BPL" issue, come to your senses, and realise that you will be depriving literally millions of people of the pleasures of SWL and amateur radio. Further, you will undoubtedly put lives at risk. LIVES AT RISK. Is it too much to ask that there be a modicum of moral fortitude in your ranks?